Welcome to the CES® 2027 Delegations Program

CES 2027 is less than three months away, and we're excited to share more details about what's in store. This year's program will feature an incredible lineup of exhibitors, speakers and events that highlight the cutting edge of the global technology ecosystem.

Explore the International Guide for travel tips, visa details and and on-site benefits tailored to global visitors. Be sure to share these with your delegates!

Already, three keynote speakers have been announced:

- Antonio Filosa, CEO of Stellantis
- Tekedra Mawakana, Co-CEO of Waymo
- Yuanqing Yang, Chairman & CEO of Lenovo

We'll continue sharing important updates, resources and CES 2027 announcements in the coming months.

Start Building Your Delegation

With CES 2027 just around the corner, now is the perfect time to start connecting with your network and encouraging delegates to join you in Las Vegas.

1. Sign in to access your CES 2027 Delegation Dashboard.
2. Your CES Account credentials must match the email address that you used to apply as a leader.
    - If you are a new Delegation leader this year, follow the registration path until your account is created and you can access your Delegation Dashboard.
    - If you are a returning leader and forgot your password, click “I need help signing in” and then “Forgot password” to reset your password.
3. Once you've received access to your Delegation Leader Dashboard, we encourage you to begin sending invitations as soon as possible.

    Early registration gives your delegates more time to make travel arrangements, explore conference programming, and plan their CES experience.

New this year: bulk upload multiple delegates at once!

Reminder: All Delegates will need to provide photo and proof of industry affiliation. View the registration requirements.*
